Foreword

IN as much as the natural beauties of the surrounding district have been often used as the central theme of many annuals, Industrial Hammond was selected by the Dunes Staff of 1926 as the basis of this number.

The motto is—

“Why Hammond Grows.”

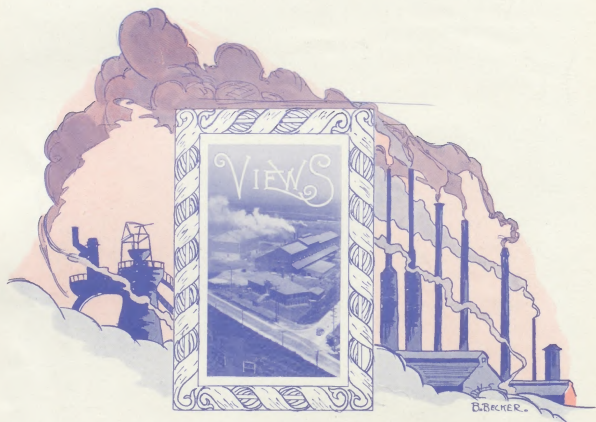

Dedication

DEDICATED to the spirit and progress of Hammond, the coming industrial center of the world.

*"It's April, and blossom time,
And white is the spray"*

"A voice and eloquence of beauty"

"The faint and windswept trail"

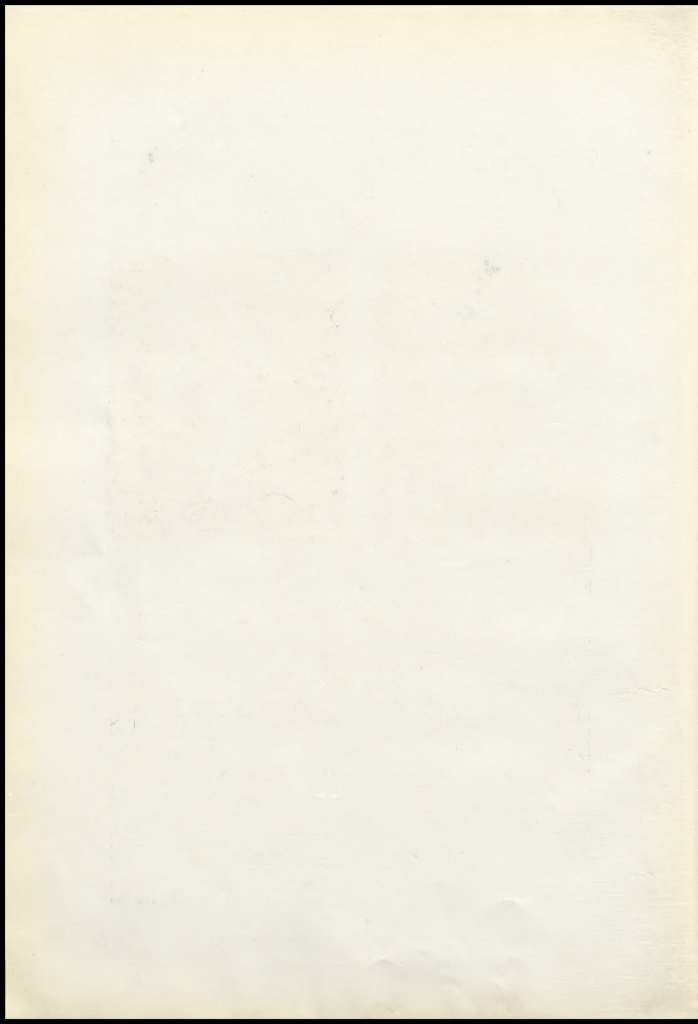

"A wonder of the wasteland"

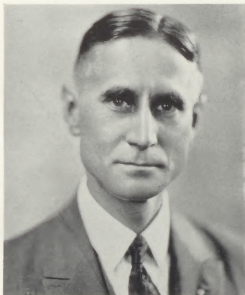

SCHOOL

A. L. SPOHN

Principal A. L. Spohn is a graduate of Earlham College and since graduation he has spent his time in educational research in the University of Chicago. He taught English in the Hammond High School prior to his present position. He has worked faithfully to build up the school of which we are all so proud. He is at all times willing to advise and cooperate and as a result our school holds him in high esteem.

Superintendent Lee L. Caldwell graduated from Simpson College, Iowa, and later attended Iowa Teachers' College, where he studied the method of teaching. Since that time he has spent his leisure time in the State University of Iowa and the University of Chicago. As a result of his intelligent research and diligent work the Hammond schools hold a superior place in the world of "sound education."

As We See Them

As We See Them

Who's Who in 1946

In order to gain admission to the Who's Who of 1946 two very definite qualifications had to be fulfilled; namely, be a member of the class of 1926, either serious or funny, and to have gained world wide renown by marriage, divorce, or established quarters in some institution.

Not a single sketch in this Who's Who has been paid for and no remarks are necessary.

In case a name has been omitted it indicates that the writers could not find trace of the person or said person is deceased.

ABRAHAMSON, SAM

Famed Shakespearean actor. He has very successfully carried the part of Hamlet for the past six years, and critics have agreed that he has even surpassed the performances of the famous Barrymore, who at one time was said to be the greatest Hamlet ever known.

AHLBORN, LILLIAN

Present editor of "Chicago Daily News." She is very well known in the literary world and with the aid and inspiration of her husband, Joseph Haney, she has made a great many successful changes in this paper.

ANDERSON, EARLEEN

Famed criminal lawyeress. Her latest case was the breach-of-promise suit—Caroline Kerber vs. Amos Hunt.

ARKIN, EVA

Proprietress of Piggly Wiggly Store, but it is said she is going bankrupt because she devotes the majority of her time to Duke Jacobs.

BARNETT, MURIEL

Muriel Barnett is incorporated in Barnett-Hansen Jewelry business where she and Clarence Hansen produce engagement rings only.

BEAMER, BOYD

Otherwise known as "Silent Boyd." He was elected senator of Indiana and has obtained much fame in the political world.

BIGGER, WILLIAM

ZEIDER, DOLORES

Movie actress, a successful young lady. "Quite charming and uncoincided," to quote newspapers.

ZIMMERMAN, VELEDA

United States representative to France. She holds the position of secretary to the ambassador. A promising young lady.

History of Class of '26

Four years of mental calculations, masterpieces of literature, pantomimes, historical data, and verb conjugations, interspersed with football games, dance programs and Spearmint chewing gum have left us all quite broken and docile, quite ready to run our race of life and anything else that the world might hold for us that is new under the sun's shining rays. In our magnanimous way we feel as if we may leave it all behind, to our underclassmen, who if possible should accomplish more than we have done. We should like to have that assurance that we have done our best in leaving it to the juniors, that is, under the circumstances.

With these things under due consideration, and our three R's duly studied, we resign ourselves to the three C's of the continuance of life after our graduation: careers, colleges, and a good matrimonial "catch." How each individual shall choose his course and make his way, we leave to the eyes of a crystal gazer until time brings all things to pass. Meantime, we trot along, slowly, surely, following in our leaders' tracks.

Juniors

On a wonderful September morning in 1923, a great event occurred in the history of Hammond High. This was the entering of the "Class of '27." In spite of many obstacles and hindrances the class honorably finished its first year.

Then those humble Freshmen became proud Sophomores. They were led by Devon Davidson, who was assisted by Roland Matthies, Russel Lyman, and Miss Hastings.

After a successful year the "Class" advanced again and became even more proud Juniors. As leader, Robert Black has made a name for himself. Frank Bolch was chosen as assistant, Cornelius Leency treasurer, Enid Harrington secretary, Miss Edwards advisor, and last and "least" John Papuga, sergeant-at-arms. During this year many events have occurred which have created a great deal of interest. The athletic teams were well represented by Juniors, dramatics have been benefited, and above all, music has been improved.

According to plans a wonderful reception and prom will be given for the noble Seniors. They are going to be given the fight of their lives in the annual class fight. The Juniors are also very eager to show the Seniors how well the "Class of '27" can hunt.

Now draws to a close the most successful year of the "Class of '27" which has striven for success and in a measure obtained it.—ROLAND C. MATTHIES.

Sophomores

In the fall of 1925 we again entered the portals of the Hammond High School, not as Freshmen but as dignified and wise Sophomores. As the usual thing, Sophomores do not receive much publicity, but our class is different. Several Sophomores have won letters, sweaters, and held responsible offices, and made records for themselves. Among these are: Lester Cornwell, David Wightman, Donald Lockman, Wendell Hamacher, and Alfred Collins. Among the girls Dawn Post and Margaret Hagedorn have added to the fame of the Sophomores.

On a dull, dark morning in October, the Sophomores held a meeting which brightened up the dreary day. Arnold Dickey was elected president; Alice Bohling, vice president; Alfred Collins, secretary-treasurer; and Lester Cornwell, sergeant-at-arms. The class then chose Mr. Reid for advisor, but he was unable to take the office because of his numerous duties as coach of the basketball team.—MARY GOSTLIN,

JEAN ROBERTSON.

The Hammond High School Association

In 1923 a new era in the history of the school began. It was just one of the brilliant climaxes in the school's progressive strides, a climax of democracy, for in that year the Hammond High School Association was born, not as a fact, but as an experiment. At the time of the new Government's proposal, the question was asked, "Would it work?" It had in some schools; in others it had failed. Would it be a success in ours? It was! The new association of the students, for the students and by the students, became a real government.

The first year a good beginning was made, though much could not be expected from the embryo organization. The second year's progress was slow, yet it was a great improvement over the old inadequate Student Council. This year it is an established fact that student participation is a success.

The President, Howard Noonan, and the Vice-President, Catherine Walker, both elected by the students, have proved their worth in leadership. The Senate, consisting of three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen are chosen from their respective classes. The House of Representatives is made up of one member from each advisory. These people have all co-operated with the leaders to make the organization a success.

The Recorder, Hazel Lockwood, and the President's Cabinet, which is composed of Miss Gwinn, Secretary of Social Affairs; Gail Wilson, Secretary of Public Safety; Mr. Rupp, Secretary of Treasury; Robert Myers, Secretary of Student Activities, and Harold Oltz, Secretary of Discipline, have done splendid work in the executive department.

Herald

After much thought and debating the Publications Committee proposed two people as likely candidates for the editorship of the Herald. The student body then voted on these names and it was found that George McEwen had been elected editor-in-chief, and Florence Gostlin managing editor. However, Florence resigned immediately and was succeeded by Mary Stephenson.

A staff was then elected and all settled down to hard, earnest work, under the able supervision of Mr. Hopper, the advisor, and Mr. Howe, who has charge of the printing.

The staff is composed of the following members: George McEwen, editor-in-chief; Mary Stephenson, managing editor; Dorothy Heidbring, news; Bernard Becker, art; Francis Edgecombe, printing; Helen Smith, exchanges; and Catherine Walker, personals and alumni. The reporters are: Robert Duncan, Margaret Spohn, Edmund Bomberger, Chester Stempkowski, Earl Monberg and Stanley Tweedle. The business staff consists of: Hobart Young, business manager; Paul Schubert, advertising manager; Charles Bemisderfer, circulation manager; and Arnold Robinson and Leo Levin. New members are added from time to time.—GEORGE MCEWEN.

Canary Club

September 18, 1922, is one of the most important dates of the Hammond High School, because it marks the organization of the Canary Club. There were forty members in this choral organization, with Elsa S. Miller as director. Ned Cook was elected first president. Eugenia Davis held that office in 1924 and Harold Smith in 1925. Berdie Vivian is the present president.

In 1923 this new club accomplished many important things, but the most important was the winning of first place in the choral contest of Lake County, held in Hammond on April 4, 1923. The first annual concert of the Canary Club was given on March 19, 1924, in the Hammond High School Auditorium. Every year the Canary Club sponsors a concert, which always turns out to be a great success.

On April 4, 1924, the Northern Indiana Oratorical, Declamatory and Choral Contest was held. The Canary Club received third place in the event.

The present director of the Canary Club is Miss Helen Howe. This is her first year with us and much credit is due her for the splendid work that is being accomplished.—CATHERINE HOUSLEY.

Boys' Band

The Boys' Band was organized in 1922 with Mr. Dale Kitzmiller as director. From the first, it has been one of the most lively and successful organizations in the school.

In the fall of 1923 Mr. Kitzmiller resigned because of ill health; Mr. William O'Donnell was engaged to take his place. When Mr. O'Donnell left in the spring of 1925 Mr. Adam P. Lesinsky was secured as director. Under his capable direction the band is making fine progress; it has entered the County Contest this year.—BILLY BIGGER.

Girls' Band

The Girls' Band was organized in the fall of 1923 under the leadership of Mr. Dale Kitzmiller. During the time Mr. Kitzmiller was here great progress was made in many ways.

Mr. William O'Donnell became the next instructor. Mr. Adam Lesinsky, our present conductor, succeeded Mr. O'Donnell. Mr. Lesinsky is striving to build up instrumentation in the Band.

The girls have progressed very rapidly, and they have high hopes of carrying away the honors in the County Contest this year. The band now consists of thirty-one instruments.—MARGARET WOLTERS.

The Orchestra

The Hammond High School Orchestra is a group of student musicians under the direction of Mr. Adam P. Lesinsky. The orchestra has a twofold purpose: first, it serves to give the students, who participate in it, a greater knowledge of the classics and of standard music; and second, it furnishes music for many student activities, as well as local entertainments.

The orchestra is one of the oldest organizations that the school boasts of. It dates back to 1920, when a few timid musicians played under the direction of Mrs. Forsberg. Since then, however, the orchestra has grown considerably until now it numbers thirty-one picked musicians.

Not only has the orchestra grown in numbers but it has also grown in quality, because they can play masterpieces such as "The Unfinished Symphony," when prior to this, simple waltzes and marches were played.

In December the orchestra gave its second annual concert, and several times it has played over radio station WHT.

Most schools have orchestras, but very few have as good an orchestra as has H. H. S. However, it is the willingness and eagerness to play for the various entertainments that put this orchestra into a class by itself.—GEORGE DEHAVEN.

Concert Band

You have all probably heard of the sweet, melodious music escaping the auditorium on Tuesday and Friday mornings during advisory period. If you do not know who or what was playing this beautiful harmony, I will tell you: It was the Hammond High School Concert Band, composed of members of the Boys' and Girls' Bands combined.

What is more inspiring than our own home band? Hammond Schools have gone on a grand band rooting. Bands to the right, bands to the left, bands in front, and bands behind! Bands practicing morning, noon, and night! Band contests, boys' bands, girls' bands, grade school bands, and high school bands! Bands everywhere!

Our Concert Band (which although at the present time has dissolved itself into the Boys' Band and Girls' Band), under the able direction of Mr. Lesinsky, last semester accomplished great work, and played at various social functions.—EDNA HIRSCH.

The Sphinx Club

The Sphinx Club was organized October, 1925. It had for its purpose the arousing of interest in history and historical research. Besides this purpose, however, the club is—indirectly—introducing a spirit of friendship among its members by means of initiations and plays. Interesting programs are held, in which current events and special programs are given.

This club is the most exclusive one in school, in consideration of the fact that one is eligible for membership only on a grade of "A" in some social study. All Freshmen are excluded.

The Sphinx Club began its work under the leadership of Louis Feinberg, president; Margaret Wolters, vice-president; and Elva Smith, secretary-treasurer. The officers for the second semester are: Steve Marko, president; Orval Moats, vice-president; and Dorothy Heidbrink, secretary-treasurer.—MARGARET WOLTERS.

Undertakers

The "Undertakers," sponsored by Mr. Nesbit, was started at Camp Betz by certain members of the squad. The main purpose of the organization was to promote school spirit, back all school activities and sponsor new ventures.

The officers for the first semester were elected in the "mess hall" at camp. They are: John Fairchild, Grand Coroner; Harold Oltz, Assistant Coroner; Harold Smith, Chief Embalmer; Arnold Schulte, Assistant Embalmer. The second semester Arnold Schulte was elected Grand Coroner; Pete Bereolos, Assistant Coroner; Harold Smith, Chief Embalmer; Robert Black, Assistant Chief Embalmer.

The club lived up to its purpose by being alive at all school activities and sponsoring two very successful dances. In its efforts to sponsor school spirit the members presented trophies to the basketball team. A major trophy was given to the player on first team showing the best spirit. It was a silver miniature statue. To the player showing the next best spirit a silver basketball was given; a plain basketball was given to the third best man. Five medals were awarded to the best members of the second squad.—ROBERT BLACK.

French Club

February 5, 1925, saw the beginning of a new club, whose purpose was to afford an opportunity to the students of our High School to use oral French. Besides this purpose the members of the club expected to study the customs of ancient France.

Last year the club began its public career with a play given at the Annual Fair. This fall the club sponsored an after school dance; tags were sold in the advisory rooms. The proceeds were used for equipment for the French department.

At the present time the officers are: Florence Gostlin, president; Thomas Levins, vice-president; Irene Dormagen, secretary; Stanley Tweedle, treasurer.—FLORENCE GOSTLIN.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, under the supervision of Miss Osborne, was organized last October. At this time a constitution was accepted. The officers of the club are: Frances Bartlett, president; Chester Stempkowski, vice-president; and Miriam Wecker, secretary-treasurer.

This club has a twofold purpose: first, to develop an interest in Spanish; second, to interest all the members in the Spanish people. Due to the fact that the club has held only a few meetings this year, very little has been accomplished so far, but plans are being made for a successful future. The club has affiliated with the National Spanish Organization, or the "El Institute de las Espanos."—FRANCES BARTLETT.

Arts and Crafts Club

The Arts and Crafts Club was organized October, 1925. The charter members were a select group of art students who had taken art for some time. Anyone who had an average of "B" or above in art was asked to attend the first meeting. Harry Tangerman was elected the first president.

The club won the approval of the student body by giving a very worth-while program during the Christmas season. The program consisted of a group of living pictures taken from the Bible.

The purpose of the organization is to create an interest in art.

The present officers are: Anton Tapper, president; John Papuga, vice-president; Mathilda Phillips, secretary-treasurer.

Ace of Clubs

The Ace of Clubs was organized in 1922, and it has been increasing in popularity each year. This year the club started its activities with an initiation that caused quite an uproar. Yells, howls, and screams came from Room 202, and everyone was convulsed with laughter. Twenty-four freshmen were initiated.

The aim of this club is to maintain a high standard of scholarship among the freshmen. The officers of the organization are: Dorothy Groman, president; Rose Turner, vice-president; Theodore Eiselt, secretary; Pauline Nenan, treasurer.—DOROTHY GROMAN.

The Cafeteria

An institution of the Hammond High School most deserving of the support of the student body and faculty is the Cafeteria.

In the Spring of 1922 the Cafeteria was moved into its present quarters. This was an improvement of the former location in Room 14. Since this change, and in spite of competition, the Cafeteria has become more and more successful each year.

Miss Hemstock, besides acting as cooking instructor, is the efficient manager of the Cafeteria, and with the aid of five women in the kitchen she serves five hundred students and faculty daily. In addition to this help she is assisted during the lunch periods by six girls and two boys who serve and gather up the dishes and trays.

The new plan of having students act as cashiers was inaugurated this semester and has proved very successful.—SYLVIA SOMMERS.

G. A. C.

The G. A. C. began this year of 1925-26 with lots of plans and pep. The outlook was extremely promising. In the first semester the annual hockey tournament was played, but owing to inclement weather the final game was postponed until Spring, leaving the favors divided between the Juniors and the Seniors.

The second semester the members returned with the same spirit, this time coming with a basketball tournament, volley ball tournament, and a jolly party in the "Ole swimmin' hole" February 12, with contests, stunts, and dancing. Track, baseball, and hockey occupied the Spring.

Girls who have made fifty points in athletics are admitted.

The big event on the G. A. C. calendar is their annual dance. This year it was held March 19 in the Cafeteria, in commemoration of St. Patrick. The officers for the year were:

President, Ruth A. Ebert; Vice-President, Katherine Broderick; Secretary, Lorraine Stoll; Treasurer, Marjorie Bomberger; Sergeant-at-arms, Margaret Hagedorn; Advisor, Miss Beatrice Orrell.—RUTH EBERT.

Dramatic Club

"Tap, tap, tap," sounded the hammer of the president of the Dramatic Club. "We shall now have an account of the life of John Barrymore."

Commands such as this may be heard once every two weeks in the auditorium, for it is then that the members of the Dramatic Club gather and hold their interesting programs, which are composed of readings, plays and other dramatic features.

In this club there are future Sarah Bernhardt's and Richard Barthelmess's. This association has charge of all dramatic work in the high school. The members are boys and girls who have, in some way, shown their dramatic abilities. The advisor of this club is Miss Edna Getzendanner, who works for the promotion and encouragement of dramatic art in the school.—CATHERINE ROHRER.

H-Men's Club

Do you notice the purple sweaters with H's on them every Wednesday? Well, those men are H-Men. The organization is an honorary one: only men that have earned their letter in a major sport are eligible. This year, however, the requirement has been changed and all men earning letters are eligible.

When the H-Men meet you always know it, because their meetings are marked by heated and loud discussions.

The sole purpose of the club is to raise the standards of athletics and each year sees a decided improvement in spirit and sportmanship.

Friendship Club

In the Spring of 1925 the Friendship Club became affiliated with the Girl Reserves, the younger girl division of the Young Women's Christian Association. The Girl Reserve code is:

As a Girl Reserve I will be: Gracious in manner, Impartial in judgment, Ready for service, Loyal to friends, Reaching toward the best, Earnest in purpose, Seeing the beautiful, Eager for knowledge, Reverent to God, Victorious over self, Ever dependable, Sincere at all times.

Three Girl Reserve Triangles were formed last September because the club had grown too large for a single group. These Triangles are the Friendship (Senior) Triangle with Miss Kennedy, advisor; Catherine Groman, president; the Junior Triangle with Miss Quinn as advisor; Esther Spichalski, president; the Sophomore Triangle with Miss Buck as advisor, Marjorie Bomberger as president.

The Triangles have backed school enterprises, have helped Freshmen through the first days of the semester and have done helpful service work, such as giving a Christmas party for the children in the Brooks House day nursery.

Top row: Fred Harvey, Arnold Robinson, Gerald Daily, Chelsea Oranger, Melvin Zachau, Orval Moats, Alvin Jergins, Chas. Science Club

Last Fall four clubs were organized to increase the interest in the sciences. These clubs fall under the following titles: Biology Club, Chemistry Club, Physics Club, and Camera Club.

The Biology Club went quietly through a very successful year under the guidance of Miss Reeder. The club meetings were always interesting and their trips were very successful.

The Chemistry Club, after a Valley Forge siege, is still existing under the leadership of Mr. Beyer and Horace Buttner. The membership is transient, very much like the population of Hammond. This may be due to restrictions set up by the charter members. The grades must be C or above.

The Camera Club has glided peacefully through the year with Eugene Jacobson at the wheel and Mr. Long advising. The club put what they learned into practical use on a trip to the Dunes, by taking pictures and developing them.

The Physics Club is under the leadership of Mr. Hays. It has worked out quite a few successful problems this semester and its members have learned and benefited much by belonging to it.—ELIZABETH MEADE.

The Book Room

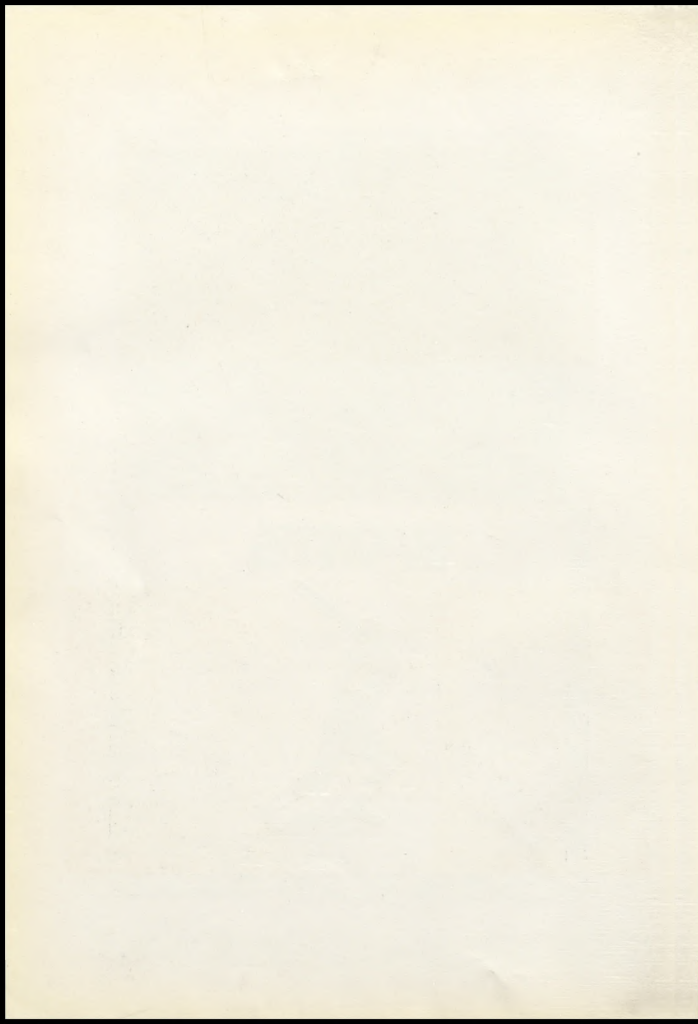

The Book Room, like nearly all organizations, has a history. At first the purpose was to sell books to all high school students, as the Board of Education had created it with this aim in mind.

The Student Council, of which Mr. Rupp is the treasurer, wanted some way of taking care of the funds brought in by the activities. They decided to have an auxiliary bank under the supervision of Mr. Rupp, and as a result the Book Room organization came into prominence. Soon it became evident that someone would be needed to help Mr. Rupp. Carleton Rudelius was selected as the first assistant. Julius Ebert took his place the following year. Edward Stern and Lorraine Ebert are working in the Book Room at present.—JULIUS EBERT.

COACH WILSON

With each passing year our fighting mentor turns out better and better teams. His fighting football team sure showed plenty this year. Coach Wilson has done wonders so far with green teams. Don't worry, Frank, a time will come when Emerson will hite the dust!

CAPTAIN BEREOLOS

Probably never in the history of Hammond High School's football teams has there been a captain with more fight in him than our own "Fighting Pete." "Five-yard Pete" was always there with the necessary yardage when it was needed. It was not at all uncommon to see Pete make runs twenty-five yards or more. His field generalship was excellent but it was his fighting spirit, no matter what the odds might be, that carried the team through a successful season.

Captain-
Elect

KARLOS

KARLOS DICKINSON

Quarterback (Capt.-Elect).

"Dicky" was always there to lend inspiration to his team mates. He was a real strategist in direction of attack and was also an excellent safety man. "Dicky" is back to lead the team next year.

ROBERT MYERS

Guard.

"Bob" was not easily boxed and he generally managed to break through to hurry forward passes or punts or to throw a runner for a loss. He used his hands splendidly on defense and was in every line play. Bob leaves H. H. S. this year.

ROBERT BLACK

Guard.

"Bob," with two years of experience behind him, played a "whale" of a game at guard throughout the entire season. "Bob" was picked on nearly every all-county team this year. He was always in the thick of the fight. "Bob" will be back next year.

IRA GOLD

Guard.

"Tree" seemed to have that uncanny sixth sense of knowing where a play was going to be directed, because he was always in on opposing backs before they had time to start. He was always in the game to fight and to fight hard. "Tree" graduates this year.

LOUIS FEINBERG

Lightning speed and quick headwork made "Irish" one of the best quarterbacks in the State. He played his best game at Whiting, running the ends raggedly and catching forward passes for long gains. "Irish's" gridiron days with the purple and white are over.

JOHN FAIRCHILD

End.

"Johnny" started the season as halfback but was soon shifted to end and it was here his real value was shown. He was always one of the first ones down after the ball, after punts and his speed helped him cut down many would-be long gains. "Johnny" also graduates.

CORNELIUS LEENEY

End.

"Connie" was a hard, clean tackler. He could handle forward passes with great skill. "Connie" could always be depended upon to stop, aspiring halfbacks from making long end runs. He broke up the opposing team's plays before they were under way. "Connie" is one of our departing Seniors.

KENDALL NEWCOMBE

Quarterback.

Kendall was an expert at directing the team's attack. Besides this responsibility he was also a sure ball-handler. He was a fine defensive back and safety man. Kendall graduates.

FRANCIS FOX

Tackle.

"F. H." was developed into a first class tackle in practically no time. His tackles were always hard and sure. He was steady and reliable in all the games. "F. H." played his first and last year with the purple and white.

HAROLD OLTZ

Halfback.

A thrilling end run, a dash through tackle, a 45-yard punt or a perfect pass and the crowd yells, "It's Oltz."

Oltz was the triple threat man on the team. His long punts many times put the ball in the enemy's territory and saved the day for Hammond. He played his best game against Tech.

FRANK BOLCH

End.

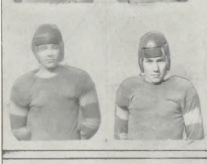

"Bolchie" duplicated his feat of last year and was again the best tackle on the team. Again and again opposing backs trying to make wide end runs were thrown for a loss or held for no gain by our stellar little end. "Bolchie" will be back to fight for H. H. S. next year.

HAROLD SMITH

Tackle.

"Smitty" was always in the game to "do or die." He was always at the bottom of the heap in nearly every play with his two arms twisted around the legs of the runner. He also opened wide holes for the backs on the offense. "Smitty's" valuable services will be missed next year.

RAY BROCK

Halfback.

Ray had very little experience when he took the halfback berth on the purple and white team. He played his best game against East Chicago, tearing off 20 and 25-yard runs. Ray was one of the best defensive backs we had. Ray is another player who is lost through graduation.

HOWARD NOONAN

Quarterback.

"Honeybunch," when getting the chance to play, always led the team with heady brilliance. He also had speed and made good use of it by wide end runs. "Honeybunch" is a Senior and will not be back next year.

HORACE BUTTNER

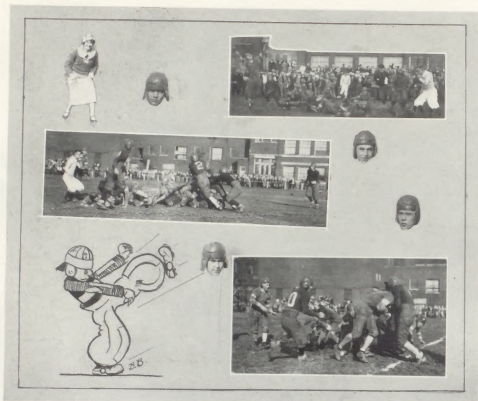

Center.

"Horsie" Buttner, also known as the Rock of Gibraltar, on the line was impregnable. Opposing backs soon found out that it was useless to try to break through the center of the line, because "Horsie," with his 190 pounds of weight, was always there to yard off the attack. This was "Horsie's" last year with the team.

CHELSEA ORANGER

Tackle.

Chelsea was one of the main stays of the team. His brilliance consisted of hard steady playing. Chelsea was fast and shifty and played "all over the lot." Chelsea also graduates.

Football Review

HAMMOND AT FROEBEL. (3-6.)

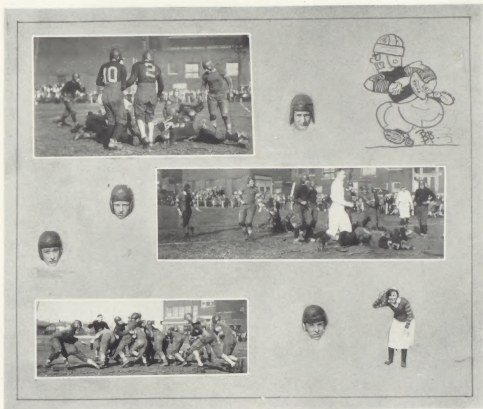

The Froebel game, also known as the "dark game," was a postponed game played one dark and dreary "night" in Gary. Hammond was in the lead by virtue of a beautiful kick from placement by Oltz. Suddenly in the closing moments of the game, Sammy and Dominick Pollizotto unleashed an offensive that eventually led to a touchdown. Over-confidence, costly fumbles and darkness led to Hammond's downfall. Feinberg, Bereolos and Oltz starred. Too much darkness!

Still smarting from their defeat at the hands of Froebel the purple and white ran all over the Prison City boys, but was not able to push over a touchdown. Although handicapped by the absence of Oltz and Feinberg in the backfield, Hammond made eleven first downs to Michigan City's two. Fine work!

TECH AT HAMMOND. (0-12.)

The purple and white team defeated the golden Tech team for the city championship of our fair city. It was a case of too much Harold Oltz for the Tech gang. Our lanky triple-threat halfback scored all the points; kicking over two goals from placement and running sixty-five yards for a touchdown. Bereolos also starred for Hammond, while Seidenbecker and Brumley starred for the Tech. Great season!

HAMMOND AT BENTON HARBOR. (7-0.)

Hammond helped dedicate a huge new stadium for the Benton Harbor lads by walloping them 7 to 0. The boys from the "long whiskered" town were outplayed all the way and never had a chance. Hammond's hole-proof line and the playing of Bereolos and Oltz featured. Keep it up!

HAMMOND AT WHITING. (21-7.)

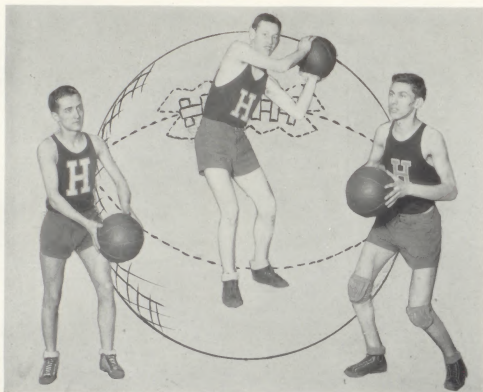

The Hammond reserves received their chance to "do their stuff" against Whiting. They stayed in long enough to make a touchdown and have a touchdown scored on them. Then the "four horsemen" went in, in the last quarter, and piled up two more touchdowns. Feinberg starred for Hammond. Atta boy!

HAMMOND AT FLINT. (6-34.)

Outweighed and outplayed by Flint, the state champions of Michigan, Hammond went down fighting valiantly. Although playing against great odds the purple and white never stopped fighting. Hammond made their six points when Smith blocked a punt and Black fell on it behind the goal line. Bereolos also starred. Tough luck, boys!

EAST CHICAGO AT HAMMOND. (9-13.)

East Chicago, our fighting rivals, came over to Hammond ready to eat up our hopefuls. They nearly kept their savage promise by running all over our team in the first quarter, piling up nine points. Our boys then woke up and pushed over two touchdowns, due mainly to the broken field running of Brock and the line plunging of Bereolos. That's the spirit!

LESTER CORNWALL, forward. With a year's experience behind him "Les" proved himself capable of holding down the forward position very efficiently. He was a hard, cheerful fighter and an expert passer. "Les" was exceptionally good on shots from difficult angles.

EDWARD POWELL. The fiery pepper-box of the squad was the midget red-head Powell. His guarding was a revelation, his passing a brilliant array of speed and his long shots a sight for sore eyes. "Red" was a credit to the squad and the school, a man worth those cheers.

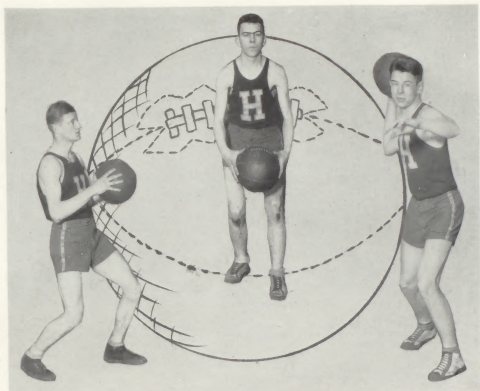

FRANK REID

DUKE JACOBS, forward. One of the men developed by Mentor Reid was Jacobs, who played every position on the floor. His under-the-basket shots and his fast, accurate passing proved him to be a finished player. Duke never gave up hope and always fought till the end.

FRANK REID

Our hats are off to Coach Reid. Coming to Hammond from Anderson, he expected to find much ready material here; instead he found a raw, green, but willing bunch of fellows. Did he quit? No, he worked, and fought, and developed a team that was feared and respected by the best of them. A fighter, a cool head, a real leader, and above all (the greatest tribute he can receive) a Man! A Real Honest to Goodness Fighting Man.

FRANK BOLCH. At stationary guard we had a stonewall named Bolch. He saved many a game by his close, expert guarding. "Bolchie" was the long-shot artist of the squad, bringing the crowd to its feet many times by his long, hair-raising shots.

CLARE PORCH, forward. "Porchie" is another man who was developed greatly by Coach Reid. He fitted in very nicely with the fast passing combination of the Whirlwinds. "Porchie" was an accurate basket tosser and a close guarder on defense.

ROBERT MYERS, guard. When "Bob" came out for the Whirlwinds not many predicted a bright future for him, but his fighting grit and perseverance won him a place on the team. He was a wonder at breaking up opponents' drives for the basket, and his passing and shooting were fast and accurate.

CAPTAIN THEODORE JASINSKI, forward. Not since the days of Don Shelton have the purple fans seen the likes of the Hammond captain and ace, Jasinski. His work was the outstanding feature of the season. His clever dribbling brought the ball up to the basket for easy shots regularly. "Teddy" led the team with heady brilliance.

THEODORE JASINSKI

The Basketball Team

They lost more games than they won. They were defeated in the first game of the sectional tournament but the school is proud of her fighting warriors. The boys were young and inexperienced but they were willing to fight. To many the season did not seem to be a huge success because "the games won column" did not attain huge proportions. But to many others the season was a success, because never before had a team lost so many games and still had kept the faith of the school and coach by their spirit and fight. In many games the boys fought as if inspired, only to be defeated by an avalanche of baskets made by more experienced players. But did they quit? No, their spirit and pep seemed an inspiration to the whole student body and they fought side by side with the team in each game.

While viewing one of the games a spectator was inspired to make this comment on the team playing. He said, "Those boys are men!"

Swimming Team

The Hammond High School tankmen, headed by George Evans, Captain, are well on their way toward a state championship. They have already taken South Bend, Emerson, East Chicago, Froebel, and Whiting into camp and have only one defeat chalked up against them, which was registered by South Bend in their second meeting with the boys.

MAURICE NESBIT

Last year the Hammondites were nosed out by Emerson, the state champions, but this year nothing will stand in the way of Hammond's march to the state championship.

COACH MAURICE NESBIT

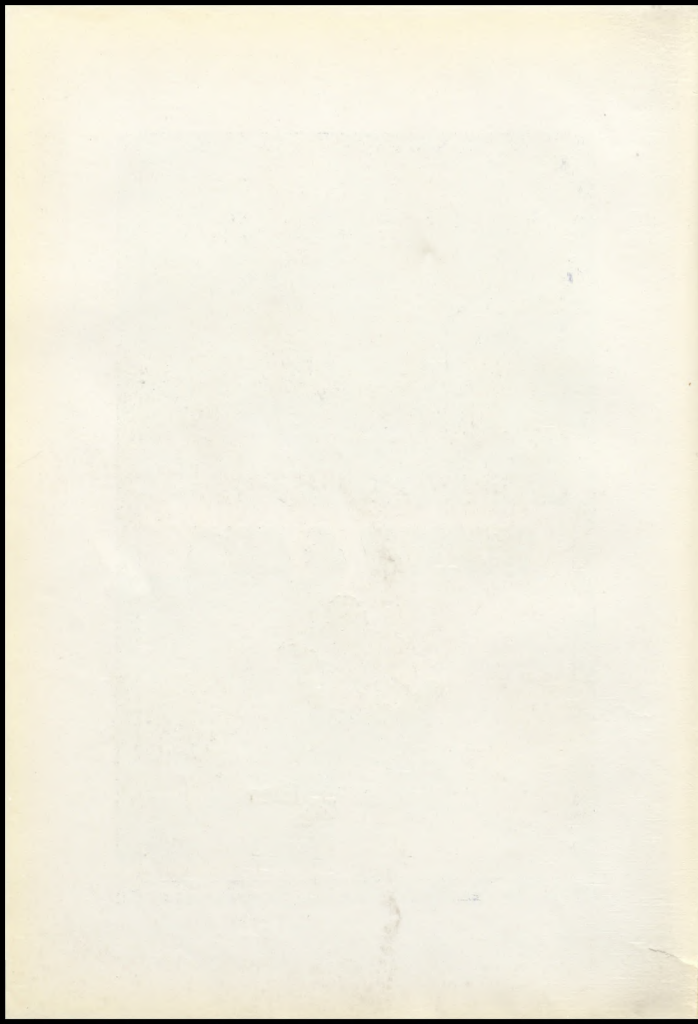

With each passing year our swimming teams have risen higher and higher in the estimation of rival schools. Nearly all of this success is due to the unfailing work and guidance of Coach Nesbit. Hammond can well be proud of their fighting team and their fighting coach.

VUMOR & ADS

Dear Mother Pinkham:

All during my H. S. career I had such exclamatory rheumatism, I used to holler right out loud every night and sometimes when my spells come on during the daytime. My mother had the same trouble when she was my age and my grandmother before her. So I took it to my conclusion that since it ran in the family, I was a part of its heredity, too. But that didn't help the rheumatism any, nor castor oil, nor Mennens Talcum Powder, nor Musterole, or Vick's Salve. It seemed as if nothing in the world could help me until one day my teacher handed me a Pinkham Punk Pill, asking me to try it. In my helpless condition I took anything, so I even swallowed that. My mother said she thought I felt better that night so I went to the drug store and bought a whole package to surprise her. I tell you, Mother Pinkham, those pills are wonders and what is still more wonderful about them is, that what they did for me they will do for others.

Today I am married and well and have nine children and none of them have exclamatory rheumatism. I thank you.

MRS. ROLAND MATTIES,
(nee Ferdinando Krikshuinas.)

Dear Mother Pinkham:

About four years ago I ate some stale fish and it left me with toe nail poisoning. I sure was in an awful fix and here lately it had been getting worse. The doctors told me I had such hardening of the arterilleries that if I didn't watch out I would get an absence on the head. My husband told me this would be very bad, because then I would get feeble-minded and they would put me in an institution where I couldn't support him. I kind of liked that idea, but he didn't. One night he brought home some Pinkham's Punk Pills and dropped them in my coffee so I would be sure to take them without knowing it. I saw him do it, but just to fool him I drank it. Right away you could see the results. Within two days I was a well woman, cooking and working for my old man like always.

I never hesitate to advise anyone about Pinkham's Punk Pills. I always tell the truth.

LOIS MIDDLETON.

Dear Mother Pinkham:

My husband is a civilized engineer in his work. I must travel about with him from place to place. When we first started I was a perfectly healthy, sane, happy and normal woman and wife, but after a while I began to enjoy pretty poor health. My husband bought me all kinds of patent medicine. He had had me insured and he used to say often to his foreman, no matter how much medicine he fed me I always got well. One day he brought me some Pinkham Punk Pills and I took eleven. Right away there was a change in me. Today, after taking four packages, I am a well woman and my husband is proud of me.

Sincerely,

GAIL WILSON.

Dear Mother Pinkham:

For the last few years I had been all in. I couldn't work. A molecule looked like a football to me. I was tired and run down and it even wore me out to watch my wife do the washing, chop wood, clean house, shoe the horses, and attend to the wants of my five daughters and six sons. I had fainting spells, and such things as my wife lifting out the Ford motor caused me to swoon.

The best quacks in the country gave me up. My wife gave me up, cheerfully. Even the Keeley Cure failed. Drinking hot luke warm water rusted my vocal cords so I tried luke warm water cold; this failed also. I tried Father John's Snake Oil and many bottles of Old Crow, but these failed. My vision was gone and my ears lost their wiggle.

Then my wife, without my knowledge and consent, dropped some Pinkham's Punk Pills into my coffee, mistaking them for bichloride of mercury. I was no longer a lounge lizard! Health and happiness came. Now my wife, eleven children and I are avowed users of Pinkham's Punk Pills.

Hoping for more Pinkham's Punk Pill users in the near future, I am,

HOWARD BRADSHAW NOONAN,
Pres. of H. H. S. A.

Dear Mother Pinkham:

I had ingrown finger nails. I did! I tried everything, even having my hands amputated, but my ingrown finger nails grew in deeper.

When my friends nicknamed me "Long Nail," that was the last nail in my coffin. I was determined to rid myself of this pestilence. My friends began to avoid me, and I was a social outcast. I could not sleep nights and constantly gnawed at my nails.

Then I read your advertisement in the "Ash Can Gazette." I bought five of your pills as a sample, for I knew it was good as a car cleaner and silver polisher, if it failed as a medicant. But it was all you promised.

My nails began dropping off and new ones came in in their place. I was a happy man. I even went down and bought my wife a new washing machine so she could start taking in washings so we could go to the Fiji Islands. I became Happy. When before, my children would ask me for a penny, I refused; but now I give them two. I can never thank you enough for what you have done for civilization by inventing these Pills. I die cheerfully,

PETER JAMES BERELOS,
Mayor of Toads Hunter Holler.

Dear Mother Pinkham:

For seven years I was a hopeless invalid. I had warts! My friends told me I was a beaten man. I rolled and tossed in my bed, for if I lay still, my warts wore out the bed clothes.

My complexion was muddy. Voodoo doctors could not alleviate my suffering. I even went to the Broken Brothers' Sanitarium, but they gave me up as a hopeless case.

My tongue was fermented and I had the mange. In my bed-ridden condition I was unable to go to Florida for the boom. Even my friends despaired of me as the years passed, and my warts did not.

Then an angel came to me in the form of one "Robert Carl Myers," a dear friend, who told me of Pinkham's Punk Pills! I took three tablets, leaped out of bed, peeled off my warts, and ran around the block six times.

I thank God for Pinkham's Punk Pills, and recommend it to all other suffering people. What it did for me it will do for others.

Warts may come, and warts may go, but my gratitude goes on forever,

Sincerely yours,

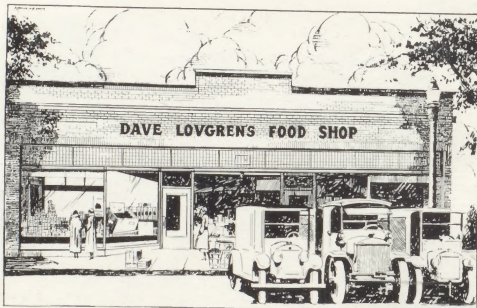

HORACE BUTTNER.

NOTES TO FRESHMEN

Pay no attention to the coffee's accusations. It has no grounds.

Do not be sentimental. Nobody but the soup spoons.

Do not think the gentleman is a tennis expert because he talks about high-balls.

You may be tired of sitting still, but it is not considered well bred to take a roll.

Do not think the table is a circus just because you see a few tumblers.

Are You Going to College Next Fall?

Take our course and you can work as a Pharmacist or Analytical Chemist. The work is interesting and the professions are uncrowded. We cannot supply the demands for our graduates.

Most of our students earn their expenses by working in drug stores outside of college hours, averaging from $10.00 to $15.00 per week.

This college is twenty-two years old, and has the largest enrollment of any such college in the state.

A Message from the Printers of The Dunes

It is a pleasure as well as a privilege to have a part in the production of The Dunes Year Book. It is one of many publications we manufacture for universities, colleges, high schools and other institutions, and will give you some idea of what we can do in work of this character.

With our years of experience in meeting educational requirements in printed form we know how to get the desired effect or appearance into books, catalogs and pamphlets, and give to our customers a service which relieves them of all bothersome details. Our organization is skilled in every necessary operation and our equipment unsurpassed for high class production at a saving in time and expense.

In the school paper, The Calumet Herald, The Dunes staff says: "Many printers bid for the work, but Conkey's proposition was the most reasonable and offered the most attractive cover design." If our Dunes accomplishment interests you and you should be in the market for a similar effort or any kind of a book or booklet, there is a real opportunity for you at THE HAMMOND PRESS which we hope you will take advantage of.
